GLENDALÉ COUNCILMEMBER LAUREN TOLMACHOFF HIGHLIGHTS THUNDERBIRD CONSERVATION PARK ON “GLENDALÉ TODAY” Takes Viewers on a Walking Tour to Showcase a Variety of Activities

Glendale, Ariz. — Glendale Councilmember Lauren Tolmachoff of the Cholla District puts on her hiking shoes to explore the city’s premiere mountain park in her new edition of the TV show “Glendale Today”. Councilmember Tolmachoff takes us on a walking tour of Thunderbird Conservation Park with Park Manager Bryan Wagner, who guides viewers through the many activities available including hiking, horseback riding, mountain biking, nature watching, educational programs, community events and family outings.

Councilmember Tolmachoff also discusses the history behind and the resources needed to maintain the 1100 acre park dedicated to preserving the desert environment with Community Services Director Erik Strunk. Among the many features showcased are the wildlife corridor, amphitheater programs and what happens behind the scenes to keep the mountain clean, safe and available to all.

The show begins airing May 8 at 8 p.m. “Glendale Today” is produced by staff from the city-owned TV station Glendale 11. The show will air daily on Glendale 11 as well as online via the city’s video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video and exclusive segments can be found on the city’s YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/MyGlendale11.
